LT. GOVERNOR

October 7, 2014

Dear Montana Educator:

Excitement continues to build for the Governor's Mobile App Challenge and in recent weeks we have had signups from rural and urban schools all across Montana. Students are entering this challenge to show off the skills and creativity Montana students have to offer. The deadline for sign-ups is this Friday October 10th.

You can go online to <http://appchallenge.mt.gov/> and sign up your school, classroom or even just a single student to compete in this challenge. Remember, you only need to sign up by Friday for this challenge and you do not have to choose a specific app at that time. Once the data is released your students can choose which applications they would like to create. I look forward to seeing which schools sign up and the unique applications students will create.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "S. Bullock", is written over a light blue horizontal line.
